Taiwan Farm

Taiwan Leisure Farms Development Association
 TLFDA, Taiwan Leisure Farms Development Association, a non-profit organization, founded in 1988 in Taiwan, according to Civil Associations Act. TLFDA's major function is to upgrade agriculture to agricultural recreation, to build LOHAS farming. The core objectives of the TLFDA are to sustainable development of farming villages, agricultural recreation as strategy, agritourism as plan, as promoter for village agricultural recreation, as bridge with the academic, government and industry, farmers and consumers, our mission are developing farming villages agricultural recreation, upgrading economics of farming villages, carries the responsibilities associated with social education and environmental protection, assuring stability and sustainability of farming villages, innovating rural value to create greater social values.
 TLFDA sustain the value of farming villages, share its knowledge and inherit happiness. Inspiring the vibe that Taiwan's farms is good choice for travel and living. Makes youths will return to the villages, makes farmers may regain their pride, makes culture to be continue, makes everyone to "enjoy leisure and feel happiness."

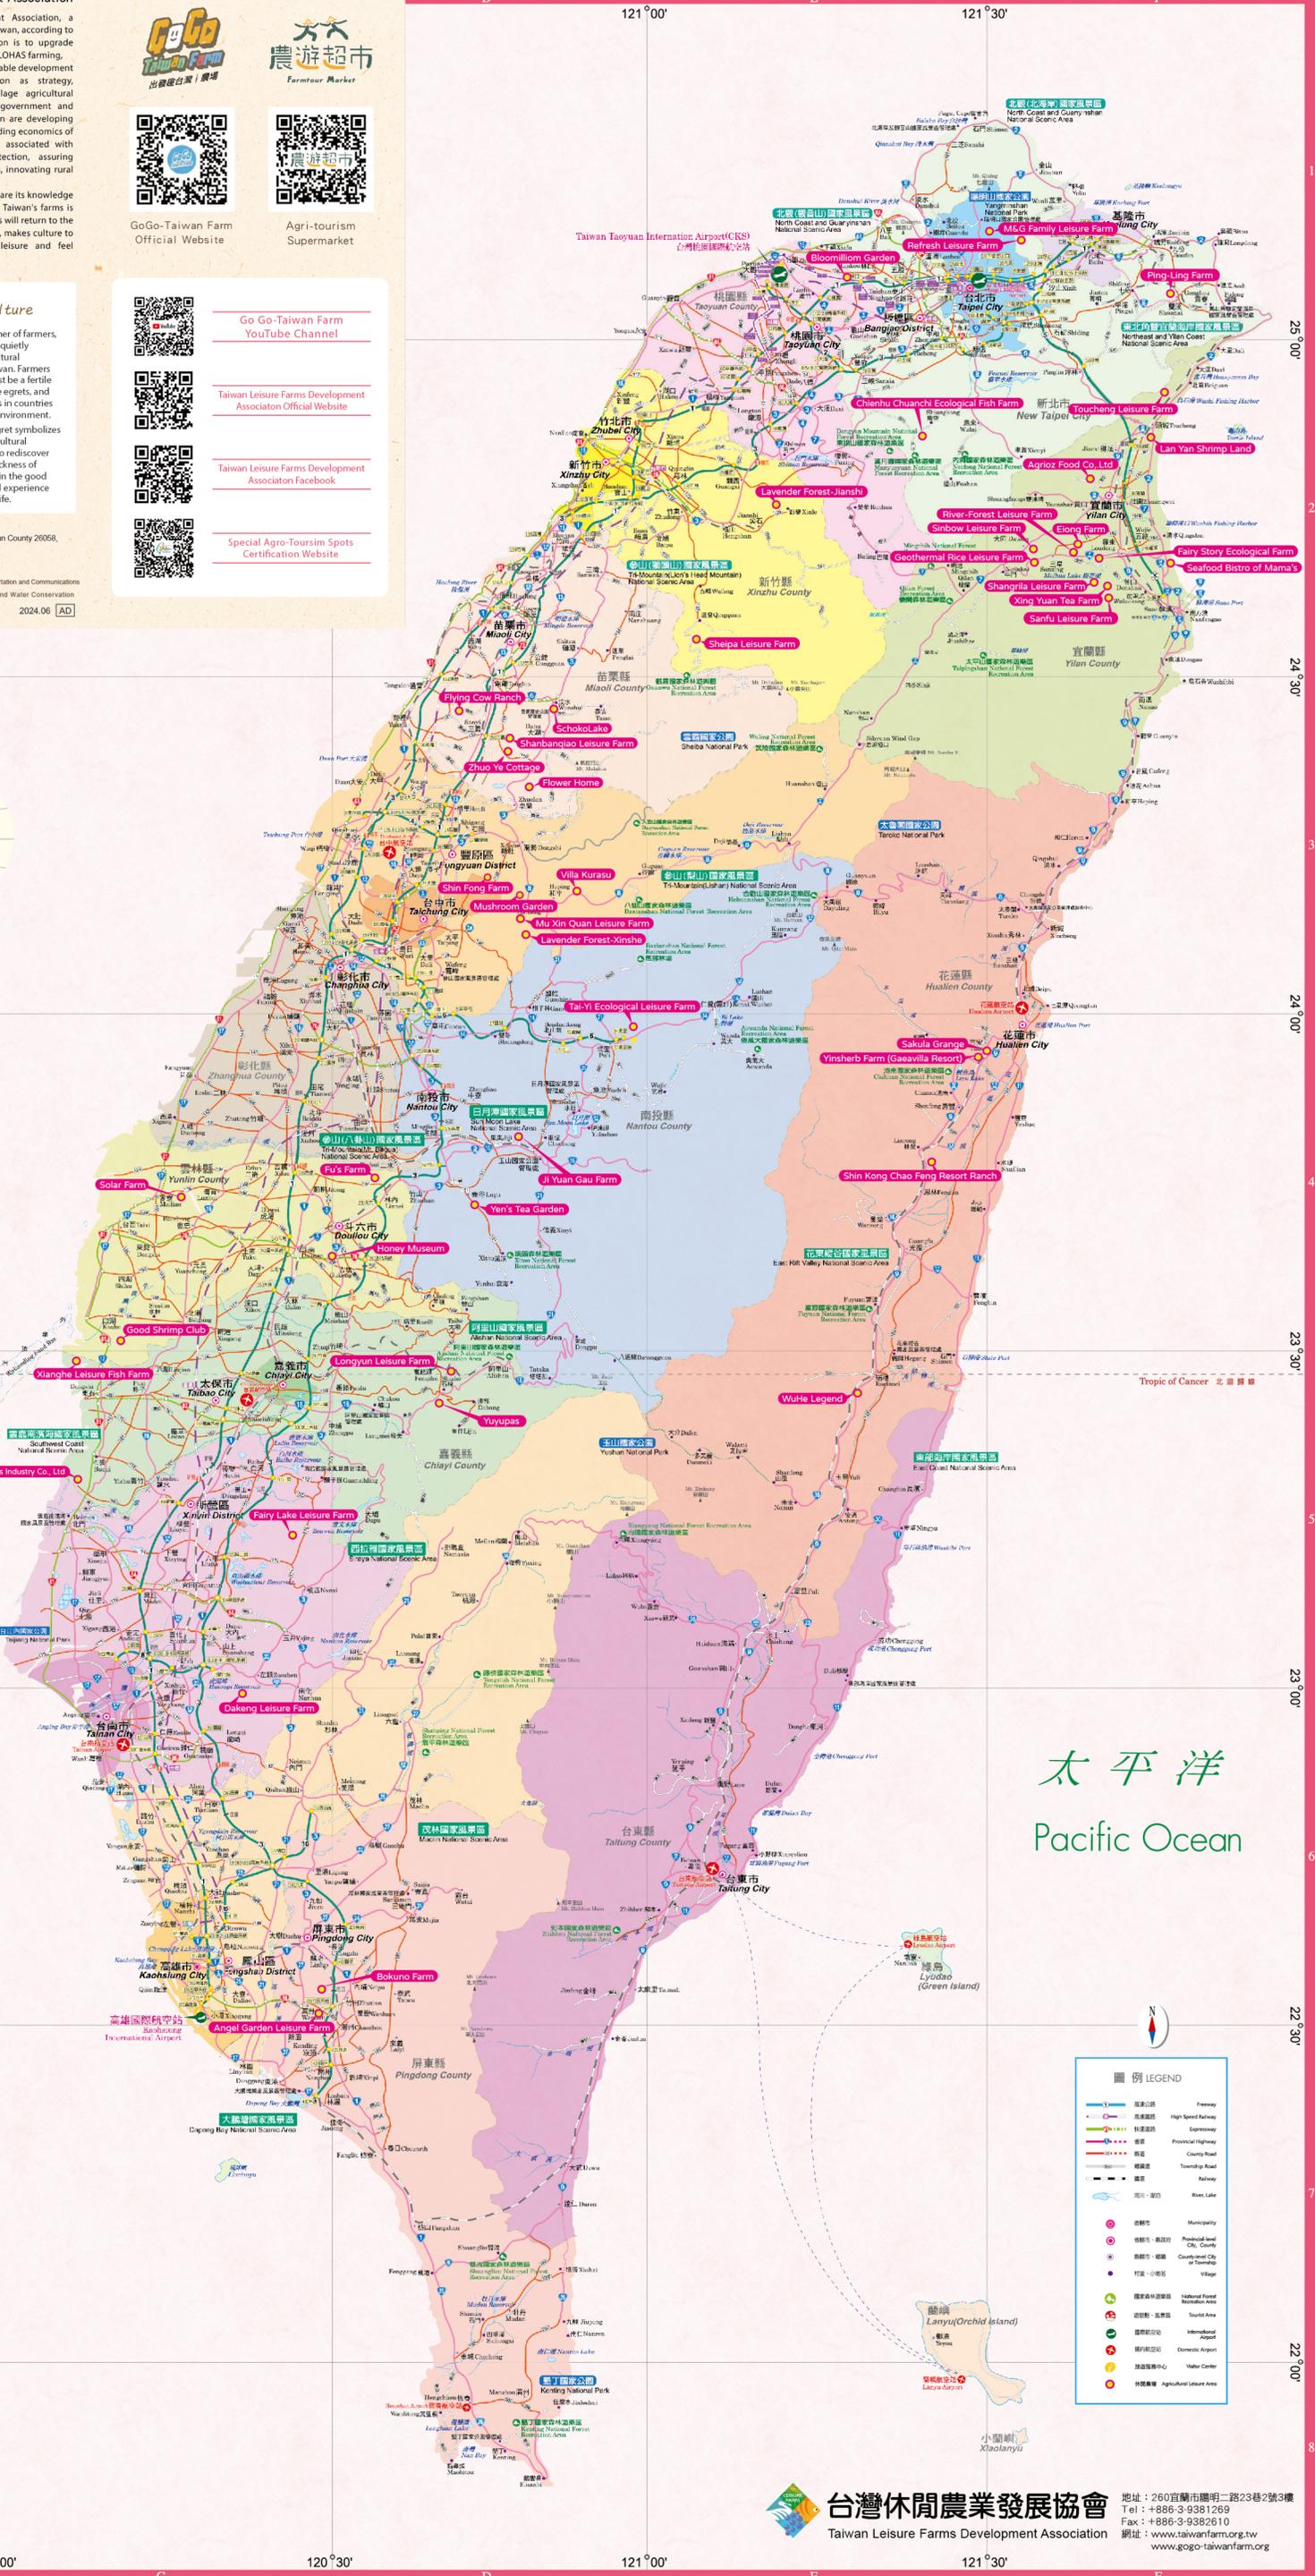

the mascot of Taiwan Leisure Agriculture

White Egret

Egret is a good partner of farmers, because it has been quietly guarding the agricultural development of Taiwan. Farmers know that there must be a fertile field where there are egrets, and there must be egrets in countries of good ecological environment. In our eyes, white egret symbolizes the sincerity and thickness of countryside, to regain the good time of rural life, and experience the happiest green life.
